ASG Group Appoints New CFO

ASG Group Limited (ASX: ASZ) today announced the appointment of Dean Langenbach as Chief Financial Officer.

Mr Langenbach joins ASG from Onesteel where he spent 3 years in finance roles focusing on business improvement, growth initiatives and integration of acquisitions.

Mr Langenbach spent 5 years in London working in financial management roles with 3 major companies—retailing group Kingfisher, beverage group Diageo and global financier GE Capital.

ASG Group Managing Director Geoff Lewis said the appointment of Mr Langenbach coincided with an exciting period of organic and acquisitive growth for ASG.

“Dean brings an exciting new energy to this position at ASG. His knowledge and experience in financial management and the integration of acquisitions will be invaluable to ASG,” said Mr Lewis.

“We have built a solid platform for both organic and acquisitive growth in the period ahead and Dean will be an important member of the management team identifying and managing expansion opportunities.”

Mr Langenbach qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 1996 while working with Deloitte in Perth. He has also been appointed joint Company Secretary for ASG.
